

Disease Reporting in Montana

All Montana health care providers are required to report patients diagnosed with the conditions listed below to their county health department. Reporting enables public health officials to conduct follow-up on cases of significance and identify outbreaks or emerging health concerns. In addition, the information collected allows public and private health professionals to assess long-term trends and patterns in disease prevalence.

Conditions Requiring Immediate Reporting

*Anthrax
Botulism (including infant botulism)
Diphtheria
Measles (Rubeola)
Plague
Rabies or suspected human exposure
Typhoid fever
Any unusual illness or cluster of illnesses*

Other Reportable Conditions

*Acquired Immune Deficiency Syndrome (AIDS)
Amebiasis
Brucellosis
Campylobacter enteritis
Chancroid
Chlamydia genital infection
Cholera
Colorado Tick Fever
Cryptosporidiosis
Cytomegaloviral illness
Diarrheal disease outbreak
E. coli enteritis
Encephalitis
Gastroenteritis epidemic
Giardiasis
Gonococcal infection
Granuloma Inguinale
Haemophilus influenza B invasive disease*

Other Reportable Conditions (Cont.)

*Hansen's disease (leprosy)
Hantavirus Pulmonary Syndrome
Hemolytic Uremic Syndrome
Hepatitis A, B, Non A-Non B
Influenza
Kawasaki disease
Legionellosis
Listeriosis
Lyme disease
Lymphogranuloma Venereum
Malaria
Meningitis, bacterial or viral
Mumps
Ornithosis (Psittacosis)
Pertussis (whooping cough)
Poliomyelitis
Q-fever
Reye's Syndrome
Rocky Mountain Spotted Fever
Rubella (including congenital)
Salmonellosis
Shigellosis
Streptococcus pneumoniae invasive disease
Syphilis
Tetanus
Trichinosis
Tuberculosis
Tularemia
Yellow Fever
Yersiniosis
Illness in a foreign traveler*

Report suspected or confirmed cases to:

Local Health Department

Report adverse events following immunizations to the DPPHS IZ Program (406) 444-1805

If you are unable to contact your county health department, call the Department of Public Health & Human Services at (406) 444-0273.